Winston cigarettes

These cigarettes were first produced in 1875, when Richard Joshua Reynolds was at the age of 25 and he began tobacco chewing. It is the city Winston (now Winston-Salem) where the company resided, it gave the name to one of the most successful brands of RJ Reynolds.

In 1966 these cigarettes became best-sellers in the United States and Canada, they held that position for 10 years. Now, they remain one of the top brands everywhere.

The unique taste, without additions, is exceptional and truly sweet. Experienced smokers can tell what makes these cigarettes separate from other popular brands

Winston cigarettes are produced 100% tobacco for a natural taste, mild created by land, water and sun. A taste of non-modified tobacco additives is appreciated by a lot of smokers, making this brand a choice for millions of people across the world. With a long history in the back this tobacco brand is a constant presence on the market and also on the top sold products. Unique flavor from tobacco mixture.

Smoking this brand can be a real pleasure, it is greatly appreciated for its taste. The mixture used in making this product is a well kept secret.
